

NOTICE REGARDING CONSUMER REPORTS PER MINNESOTA LAW

[company_name] ("the Company") may obtain a consumer report from a third-party consumer reporting agency in connection with your prospective or continued employment. This may include procurement of an investigative consumer report, which may include information obtained through personal interviews. These reports may contain information regarding your criminal history, social security verification, motor vehicle records ("driving records"), verification of your education or employment history, or other background checks and which may include information concerning your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, mode of living, or credit standing. The most common form of an investigative consumer report in connection with your employment is a reference check through personal interviews with sources such as your former employers and associates, and other information sources. You have the right, upon written request, to receive a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of any consumer report.

To receive a copy of your consumer report please contact the consumer report agency at the information below:
